EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Apsis CONSULTORIA EMPRESARIAL Ltda., hereinafter referred to as apsis, headquartered at Rua do Passeio, No. 62, 6th floor, Centro, City and State of Rio de Janeiro, enrolled with the CNPJ under No. 27.281.922/0001 - 70, was appointed by the Companies under REORGANIZATION to prepare a technical feasibility study of its Judicial Reorganization Plan, in order to comply with the provisions of item II of article 53 of Law No. 11.101/05.

Item II of article 53 of Law No. 11.101/05 establishes that the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION must demonstrate the economic viability of the companies under judicial reorganization, in order to position the creditors on the ability to settle their debts.

ODB E&C, together with some of its subsidiaries, filed, on June 27, 2024, a request for judicial reorganization to restructure obligations related to its operations in Brazil and other debts that may affect the requesting entities, which was accepted by the 2nd Court of Bankruptcy and Judicial Reorganization of the District of São Paulo/SP, on the same date. The judicial reorganization will exclusively cover the contractor's operation in Brazil, excluding international operating subsidiaries.

This Feasibility Study was prepared by apsis based on information provided by the management and financial advisors of the OEC GROUP, in order to provide a greater understanding of the business model and the subsidies that attest to its economic and financial viability. This work does not constitute, in whole or in part, marketing material or a request or offer for the purchase of any securities, nor should it be considered an investment guide, having been prepared solely for the purpose of being a complementary material to assist the Companies UNDER REORGANIZATION in their judicial reorganization process, aiming at complying with the provisions of item II of article 53 of Law No. 11.101/05.

The assumptions and statements contained herein are based, in large part, on current expectations and trends that affect or potentially may affect the operating businesses of the OEC GROUP, according to information provided by management. These assumptions and statements are considered to be based on reasonable expectations and supported by currently available information, although they are subject to various risks, uncertainties and assumptions. These forward-looking assumptions and statements may be influenced by a number of factors, including, for example:

- Government interventions, resulting in changes in the economy, taxes, tariffs or in the regulatory environment in Brazil or in other international locations where the OEC GROUP operates.
- Changes in general economic conditions, including but not limited to inflation, interest rates, employment level, population growth, and consumer confidence.
- Factors or trends that may affect the business, market share, financial condition, liquidity or results of operations of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION and its subsidiaries.
- Any difficulties faced by the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION and its subsidiaries in the implementation your projects on time and without incurring unforeseen costs, which can delay or impede the execution of your business plan.

- Possible difficulties for the OEC GROUP to make the planned investments, due to obstacles in obtaining financing and/or access to the capital market.
- Unfavorable decisions in judicial or administrative proceedings that may cause adverse effects to the OEC GROUP.

The information contained in this Study related to Brazil and the Brazilian economy is based on data published by the Central Bank of Brazil, the Brazilian Institute of Geography and Statistics (IBGE), the Institute of Applied Economic Research (IPEA), other public agencies and other sources. Because we believe that the macroeconomic, commercial and statistical data used come from reliable sources, they have not been independently verified.

Thus, any financial information included in this Study is not and should not be considered financial statements of the Companies UNDER REORGANIZATION or the OEC GROUP. The potential financial impacts mentioned are based exclusively on information made available by the management of the OEC GROUP and its advisors up to the date of preparation of this work.

This Study is based on public information regarding the understanding and knowledge of the sector by the consultants of apsis and on information provided by the management of the OEC GROUP and its advisors.

This Study is not and should not be used by the creditors of the OEC GROUP as an opinion as to the recommendation or fairness of the transaction (fairness opinion) from a financial point of view. We are not advising such creditors in relation to financial restructuring. Everyone should conduct their own analysis of the judicial recovery and, when evaluating the process, should rely on their own financial, tax and legal advisors, and not on the Study.

The elaboration of economic and financial analyzes such as those of this Study is a complex process that involves subjective judgments, not susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Thus, apsis believes that the Feasibility Study should be analyzed as a whole, and the analysis of selected parts and other factors considered in the preparation may result in an incomplete and incorrect understanding of the conclusions. The results presented herein are exclusively within the context of the Judicial Reorganization Plan and do not extend to any other issues or transactions, present or future, related to the OEC GROUP or the sector in which it operates.

The document is exclusively intended for the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION and does not evaluate the commercial decision to carry out the transaction, nor does it constitute a recommendation for the OEC GROUP and/or its creditors - including, without limitation, as to the manner in which they must exercise their right to vote or any other rights with regard to judicial reorganization.

In this Study, key assumptions essential for the success of the Judicial Reorganization Plan were adopted, informed by the management of the OEC GROUP and described in detail in Chapter 6. If they are not carried out, relevant impacts on the Judicial Reorganization Plan may occur.

- The financial projections were prepared by the OEC GROUP team, using various information and spreadsheets from different sectors of the company. Apsis received a package of summary information on the results and discussed them in meetings held with the OEC GROUP and its team of advisors, in order to make it possible to carry out our own verifications, which led to the conclusion that the numbers presented demonstrate reasonableness, considering the company's history. It is important to note that any evaluation is subject to inherent uncertainties and external factors that may influence the results. Therefore, this evaluation should be considered as an analysis based on information available until the report is issued.
- For the purpose of projection, we assume the absence of liens or encumbrances of any nature, judicial or extrajudicial, affecting the companies in question, other than those listed in this study.
- The study presents all the limiting conditions imposed by the methodologies adopted, if any, that may affect the analyzes, opinions and conclusions contained in this work.
- This study was prepared by apsis, and no one, except its own consultants, prepared the analyzes and corresponding conclusions. The controller and the managers of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION have not directed, limited, hindered or practiced any acts that have or may have compromised the access, use or knowledge of information, assets, documents or work methodologies relevant to the quality of the conclusions contained in this work.
- This Study should not be interpreted individually, but rather within the general context of the judicial reorganization of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION, without prejudice, for example, to rights, any legal preferences and guarantees applicable to each credit or assets blocked by the Federal Court of Auditors.

3. LIMITATIONS ON LIABILITY

- For the preparation of this study, apsis used information and historical data audited by third parties or unaudited, provided in writing by the company's management or obtained from the sources mentioned. Therefore, apsis assumed as true and consistent the data and information obtained for this study and has no responsibility with respect to its veracity.
- The scope of this work did not include auditing the financial statements or reviewing the work performed by its auditors. Therefore, APSIS is not expressing an opinion on the financial statements of the OEC GROUP.
- We are not responsible for occasional losses to the Applicant and its subsidiaries, its partners, directors, creditors or other parties as a result of the use of the data and information provided by the company and contained in this study.
- Our work was developed solely for the use of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION and their partners, aiming at the objective already described. Therefore, this study should not be published, circulated, reproduced, disclosed or used for any purpose other than that already mentioned without prior written approval from apsis.
- The analyzes and conclusions contained in this study are based on several assumptions, made on the present date, of future operational projections, such as: prices, volumes, market shares, revenues, taxes, investments, operating margins, etc. Thus, the company's future operating results may differ from any forecast or estimate contained in this study, especially if there is subsequent knowledge of information not available at the time of issuing the report.
- This study does not reflect events and respective impacts on the statements that occurred after the base date.
- APSIS is not responsible for direct or indirect losses or loss of profits eventually arising from the misuse of this study.
- We emphasize that the understanding of the conclusion of this study will occur through its full reading and its annexes, therefore, it is not necessary to draw conclusions from its partial reading, which may be incorrect or mistaken.

- In this Study, the financial statements and balance sheets of the companies as of December 31, 2023 were used as a reference for the analyzes and evaluations.
- For the composition of the list of creditors, the listing of the trustee was considered.
- It was not part of the scope of apsis to conduct inventory of items of property, plant and equipment or inventory counting, as well as legal or accounting analysis regarding assets/liabilities or any other form of independent investigation or due diligence on the information received from the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION.

- It is not part of the scope of our work to detail and quantify: (i) any contingencies, (ii) results of legal proceedings against the OEC GROUP and (iii) liabilities or fines, among others, that may arise in the event of the termination of the operations of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION, such as civil and labor proceedings.
- For the purpose of estimating sale/realization values of goods and assets in a liquidation scenario, it was applied a discount on the market value of the goods. It should be noted that this discount may vary depending on several factors, such as the deadline for liquidation of assets and others.
- The liabilities of the OEC GROUP, including debts, loans and guarantees are essentially interconnected. A debt of an investee may be guaranteed by another company in the group. In this case, the liabilities are listed in both companies. Given the complexity of preparing the payment/discharge mechanics of a certain liability by an investee of the OEC GROUP and the write-off or assumption of this same liability by another subsidiary, the financial projections prepared in this Study may consider more than once certain liabilities, if they are settled by the company that originated the liability.
- In view of the gap between the reference date of the accounting records and the date of issue of this Study, we emphasize that readers should pay attention to any more up-to-date information that may become publicly available after the date of issue as an additional and complementary source of information to support their decisions and analyzes. The investigation of the existence of such information must be carried out by the readers and users of this Study in order to obtain an additional source to support their decisions and analyzes.

4. DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY AND MAIN ASSETS AND ASSETS

■ ODEBRECHT ENGENHARIA E CONSTRUÇÃO - COMPANY UNDER REORGANIZATION

ODB E&C is the parent company of the other companies of the OEC GROUP and one of the main subsidiaries of the Novonor Group, a Brazilian multinational conglomerate founded in 1944 by Norberto Odebrecht. The company is recognized for its global performance in engineering and construction projects, with experience in several sectors, including infrastructure, oil and gas, energy, mining, sanitation and transportation.

Historically, ODB E&C has been involved in large infrastructure projects in Brazil and abroad, including the construction of stadiums, highways, railways, ports, airports, hydroelectric plants and other large works. Its business model is based on construction and engineering contracts, assuming responsibility for the design, planning, execution and delivery of projects.

The company adopted a decentralized management model, with autonomous business units, responsible for its operations and results. This approach allowed ODB E&C to expand its presence in several international markets, especially in Latin America, the United States, Africa and the Middle East.

However, in recent years, following the Covid-19 pandemic, the company has faced significant challenges, especially related to macroeconomic issues and substantial reduction of investments and credit in the engineering and infrastructure sector. High indebtedness and difficulties in accessing credit and other essential assets for operations have become obstacles to the advancement and resumption of growth of the OEC GROUP.

The current operational context of Odebrecht Engenharia e Construção S.A. is marked by a focus on financial recovery and its capital structure. The OECI organization chart is as follows.

5. MAIN REASONS FOR THE CRISIS BY THE OEC GROUP

In recent years, the OEC GROUP had its expectations of resumption of works frustrated. According to the company, two major impacts contributed to this situation. The first was the Covid-19 pandemic, which had a huge impact on the sector, resulting in a hiring freeze. The second factor was the period from 2014 onwards, during which Brazil and Latin America faced a significant reduction in investments in infrastructure. The OEC GROUP, which was in the process of business reorganization, ended up entering a spiral of decline.

Investment in Infrastructure in Brazil (USD billion)

Source: IPEA/IBGE - Quarterly National Accounts.

As is common in the engineering and construction sector, the development of the activities performed by the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION depends on high investments from the embryonic stages of the projects undertaken. It is essential, therefore, to maintain a robust capital structure that safely supports all stages of the engineering and construction operational process.

With the optimism generated by the country's economic growth and in view of the global market's confidence in the OEC GROUP's operational capacity, financing through debt securities issued in the international market (bonds) proved to be the best alternative for fundraising, which is the path chosen by the OEC GROUP during its expansion period.

In this context, between 2009 and 2014, about US $4.4 billion was raised in the US capital market, through series of unsecured notes governed by New York Law, all issued by Novonor Finance Limited ("NFL", currently under judicial reorganization together with Novonor) and jointly and severally guaranteed by the UNDER-RECOVERY PARTIES.

In this context, the OEC GROUP trusted that its future cash generation would be able to support its indebtedness based on projections and information available at the time, which did not materialize.

Nominal gross domestic product (GDP), for example, was below that projected between 2018 and 2023. Following the same pattern, Gross Fixed Capital Formation (GFCF), an index defined by the System of National Accounts 1993¹ and applied by IBGE, which records the expansion of the future productive capacity of an economy through current investments in fixed assets, was carried out below the projected between 2016 and 2023.

The frustration of such expectations linked to a macroeconomic context that affected not only the OEC GROUP, but several other players in the engineering market, can be attributed to some factors observed in recent years.

For macroeconomic reasons related to fiscal policy and the environment of political instability experienced in the period from 2016², the availability of resources from the Government for investments in public works and the appetite of private entities to provide credit to companies in the sector were substantially reduced. For this reason, the engineering and infrastructure sector has shrunk dramatically in recent years.

It is estimated that the volume of investment in the engineering and infrastructure sector in the country fell 48% between 2014 and 2019, and the Government reduced its investments in the sector by 52%3. Other data reveal that investments in infrastructure, which represented an approximate annual average of R $178.8 billion between 2010 and 2014, plummeted substantially in the following years, to about R $123.0 billion in 2020 - the lowest level in ten years⁴⁴. In addition to the lack of new investments, the sector's crisis also brought difficulties for the continuity of works already contracted: 37% of the works financed by the Union were paralyzed or unfinished between April and May 2018.

Despite all the efforts made in cooperation and in the signing of agreements with Brazilian and foreign authorities, aiming at the normalization and continuity of its activities - which has been occurring gradually, successfully - it is undeniable that the consequences of Operation Car Wash significantly compromised the liquidity of the Novonor Group as a whole, affecting mainly the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION.

Even after the conclusion of these agreements, the difficulties faced in obtaining new financing remained, especially with public financial institutions. And the support of these institutions is indispensable for the infrastructure investment sector, not only in Brazil but in other Latin American countries, so that their absence and, even worse, the credit restrictions imposed on the Novonor Group increased its financial stranglehold⁵. The increasingly high cost of credit and the loading of relevant passive contingencies, including due to Lava Jato, also

In addition, it is important to highlight the drastic impact generated by the Covid-19 pandemic from 2020 onwards, an extraordinary and unpredictable event that significantly affected global economic activity. Early on, the health crisis significantly reduced the availability of resources from the Government for investment in the civil construction sector - since all efforts and resources were focused on the short-term equation of the effects of the health crisis⁶.

There was also a sharp increase in the costs of inputs and raw materials in the construction sector, aggravating the imbalance in the economic and financial planning previously outlined. After all, the budgets of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION, presented at the beginning of the respective bidding processes, were no longer viable. Renegotiations with the Government for the economic and financial rebalancing of contracts require time, and can only be carried out through an administrative process. In this interregnum, the mismatch between the costs faced for the development of the work and the revenues received, in accordance with the contracts, is inevitable.

Average m² Cost of Civil Construction (In current R$)

After negotiations with their creditors, the applicants ODB E&C, CNO and OECI presented, on August 19, 2020, the request for ratification of an extrajudicial recovery plan before the Honorable Court of the 1st Bankruptcy and Judicial Reorganization Court of São Paulo/SP, assessed under No. 1075159-25.2020.8.26.0100. The extrajudicial reorganization plan was approved on October 26, 2020, which made it possible to equalize a financial liability of more than R $18 billion represented by the joint and several guarantees provided by those companies to the Bonds contracted by the NFL in 2009 and 2014.

It is necessary to point out from the outset that the extrajudicial recovery was not - and was not intended to be, considering the surgical and objective nature of the procedure - a global restructuring of the liabilities of the OEC GROUP. After all, the renegotiation of Bonds implemented in 2020 (i) did not include all UNDER-RECOVERY COMPANIES, but only ODB E&C, CNO and OECI, and (ii) dealt only with the portion of the financial liabilities of such companies, which brought greater risks to the liquidity of the OEC GROUP at the time.

As a result of the extrajudicial recovery, new notes were issued by OEC Finance, with the companies OEC, CNO, OECI and OENGER being guarantors, in addition to a debt instrument with profit sharing issued by ODB HoldCo.

The implementation of the extrajudicial reorganization allowed the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION to stabilize their financial situation in the short term, in order to provide a stable scenario for the continuation of their activities. The objectives of the restructuring were, essentially, the optimization of the capital structure of the OEC GROUP and the feasibility of a period without cash pressure for the payment of interest and principal, ensuring time and favorable environment for the resumption of its growth.

Based on this scenario, the OEC GROUP was able to take a series of necessary measures to readjust its operation to the new expectations of resumption of the infrastructure and civil construction market, both in the national and international environment, implementing divestments in unprofitable countries and regions and increasing its participation in private competitive processes, less susceptible to political-institutional variations.

As a result of this new business plan, and with the gradual reheating of the infrastructure and civil construction sector, the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION completed several works of great relevance. In Brazil, the projects of the Adductor Canal of the Sertão Alagoano (stretch 4)⁷, the Ilha dos Pombos⁸ Hydroelectric Plant and the Santa Cruz⁹ Thermoelectric Plant were delivered. Abroad, the OEC GROUP's execution history was also confirmed, with the delivery of the Line 2 branch of the Panama City Metro, which created direct access to Tocumen¹⁰ International Airport and the Laúca Hydroelectric Power Plant in Angola.

Although positive and necessary for the maintenance of the activities of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION, the measures implemented were not sufficient to overcome the extensive crisis that affected the engineering sector and the OEC GROUP. As shown in the graph below, although the net revenue of the OEC GROUP has seen a slight recovery after the restructuring implemented in 2020, there has not been, to date, stabilization at levels adequate to face its capital structure and indebtedness.

Evolution of OEC Net Operating Revenue (BRL million)

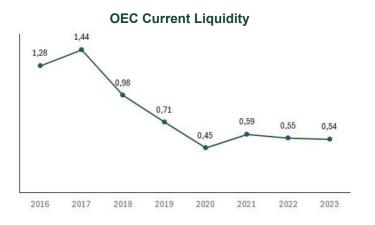

Source: OEC GROUP

The revenue generation that had been projected for the years from 2020 did not materialize, and in the period from 2020 to 2022, there was revenue frustration in the amount of approximately R $12.9 billion.

Source: OEC S.A. Financial Statements

As a result of this scenario, the OEC GROUP also began to observe a significant deterioration in its current liquidity, with insufficient resources for the fulfillment of obligations. The following graph shows the evolution of the current liquidity of the OEC Group over the years, indicating the current asset value for each R $1.00 of debt. See:

Source: OEC GROUP

The conclusion is that the OEC GROUP, even after the extrajudicial recovery implemented in 2020, was not able to generate sufficient resources for the payment of its debts, and in 2023, for each R $1.00 of debt, the Group had only R $0.54 in cash for payment.

As a result, the indebtedness of the OEC Group in relation to its assets, driven mainly by the New Notes and HoldCo Instrument, increased substantially, which impaired its fundraising with creditors and in the market. These results even led to the recent downgrade of the credit note granted by Fitch Ratings to OEC, from CCC- to CC in the Long-Term category in Foreign and Local Currencies and from CCC (bra) to CC (bra) in the National Long-Term category, as disclosed in March 2024, which has a negative impact on the OEC GROUP's financing capacity, notably in the contracting of insurance and working capital lines.

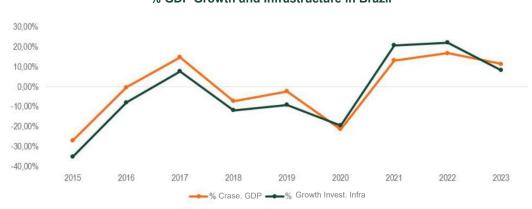

The high level of indebtedness and the difficulties of access to credit and other essential assets for the turnover of its operations remained as obstacles to the advancement and resumption of the growth of the OEC GROUP, which could only be resolved in a broad and organized process of definitive restructuring of liabilities, reorganization of activities and readjustment of the structure.

It is precisely for this purpose that the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION submitted a request for Judicial Reorganization, which proposes to be expeditious and has been carefully structured by the OEC GROUP to, in a safe and transparent environment, enable the overcoming of the crisis and the implementation of a clean and structured business model, generating value for the OEC GROUP and its creditors in their greatest potential.

6. SECTORAL CHARACTERIZATION

A region's GDP growth tends to drive infrastructure investments due to increased tax revenues and the investment capacity of the public and private sectors. A growing economy provides more financial resources for the development of essential projects such as transport, energy and communications, which are crucial to sustaining economic growth. A growing GDP attracts foreign and domestic investors, creating a virtuous cycle where more investments in infrastructure promote greater economic growth, ensuring sustainability and continuous expansion of the economy.

This scenario reflects the importance of a favorable economic environment for the growth of the construction sector, where the increase in GDP not only improves investment capacity, but also sustains a continuous and sustainable development cycle.

INVESTMENTS IN INFRASTRUCTURE

When analyzing in parallel the Brazilian GDP and investment in infrastructure in the country, in the last 20 years (2003 - 2023), it is possible to notice that, in several years, a significant growth in GDP coincides with a substantial increase in investment in infrastructure. For example:

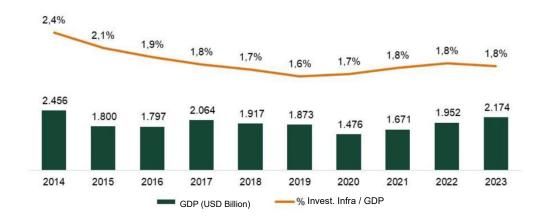

During the years of highest economic growth, such as 2004, 2010 and 2021, there was a corresponding increase in investments in infrastructure, indicating that a growing economy tends to generate more resources for investments in infrastructure.

Between 2015 and 2020, there was a significant reduction in investments in infrastructure, reflecting the lower availability of financial resources, focusing on recession and slow growth in infrastructure, caused by several factors, such as: Political Instability; High Interest Rates; Lack of Efficient Public-Private Partnerships (PPPs) and Government Enforcement Capacity.

The percentage share of infrastructure investment in GDP has varied over the years, with a general trend of decrease since 2014, when it was 2.4%, until 2019, when it fell to 1.6%. However, from 2022 onwards, the annual participation grew again, remaining at 1.8% in 2023.

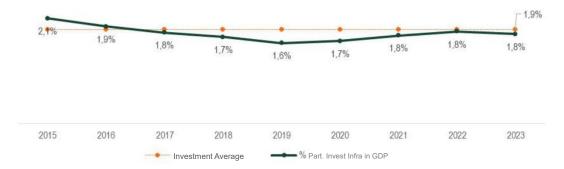

Investment in Infrastructure in Brazil (USD billion)

Source: IPEA - Institute of Applied Economic Research

Infrastructure investment registered in 2023 the highest value since 2014, with USD 39 billion - an 8% growth compared to 2022. On average, infrastructure investment in Brazil represented approximately 1.9% of GDP from 2014 to 2023, as shown in the following chart.

% Infrastructure over GDP in Brazil

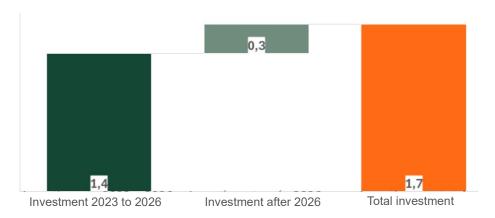

Source: IPEA - Institute of Applied Economic Research

For the coming years, the outlook for infrastructure investments remains positive¹¹. The market evaluates that there is a greater integration between the New PAC (Growth Acceleration Program), the PPI (Investment Partnership Program) and the PPA (Multiannual Plan) 2024-2027, both from the federal government and from the states and municipalities. This information is from the latest edition of the Infrastructure Barometer, referring to the second half of last year, prepared by EY in partnership with ABDIB (Brazilian Association of Infrastructure and Basic Industries).

According to the Federal Government Online Portal (www.gov.br), the Federal Government estimates to invest BRL 24 billion in the country's transport infrastructure in 2024, an increase of almost 200% compared to 2022, and the New PAC - Federal Government Investment Program - intends to invest BRL 1.7 trillion in all states of Brazil, of which BRL 1.3 trillion by 2026 and BRL 0.4 trillion after 2026.

Investment planned for Infrastructure - PAC (BRL trillion)

Source: www.gov.br

Two other factors that should influence the coming quarters of 2024 are the reduction in the basic interest rate, which may occur faster than expected, and the emphasis given to the private sector in investment programs through concessions and PPPs (Public-Private Partnerships), with hundreds of projects being structured in the country. These reasons also contributed to the increase in the optimistic view regarding the investment scenario in the next six months ¹².

In periods when GDP grows, there is a tendency for investments in infrastructure to increase.

The average EBITDA margin of the sector sample ranged between 11% and 13% during the period from 2018 to 2023 (paid-in). This indicates a certain stability, but with a slight growth trend in recent years.

Brazilian companies have, in general, lower and more volatile EBITDA margins compared to their international counterparts, as they were deeply affected by Operation Car Wash (2014). This scenario generated a crisis in the sector, with companies facing financial difficulties, loss of credibility in the market, and the need to restructure their operations and governance to survive in the new regulatory context.

According to the sample of companies above, the infrastructure sector seems to be in a moment of stability with slight improvements projected for the coming years. The industry average EBITDA margin is projected to stabilize around 14%, which is an improvement over recent history.

7. OPERATIONAL PREMISES OF THE OEC GROUP

OEC is one of the largest engineering and construction companies in Brazil, being part of the Novonor Group, one of the largest conglomerates in Latin America.

Even with the difficulties faced, OEC maintained a significant presence in international projects, especially in Latin America and Africa.

It is important to highlight that the judicial reorganization will be restricted to the Brazilian environment and will not affect the operational routine of ongoing contracts or the execution of new contracts.

With a strategy aimed at carrying out complex and large works in emerging markets, the OEC GROUP estimates the following proportion of revenue generation in the medium/ long term: Brazil (52%), Angola (36%), USA (6%) and Ghana (5%).

Angola 36% USA 6% Brazil 53%

GROSS OPERATING REVENUE - 2024-2032

GROSS OPERATING REVENUE

The OEC GROUP's operational segment is heavy civil construction in projects for the construction of highways, railways, hydroelectric, thermoelectric and nuclear plants, port facilities, dams, refineries, among other industrial projects and infrastructure for public and private customers, with the main source of funds being the generation of cash from these projects.

The Company focuses its operations geographically, selectively and strategically in the following countries:

- i) Brazil ambivalent focus on public and private clients. The company seeks to play a leading role in energy transition opportunities, as well as seeking partnership in highway, port, airport, sanitation and mobility concessions, in addition to acting in the maintenance of industrial plants;
- ii) Angola/Africa: strengthening of operations in the African market, based on Angola, in addition to the growth of opportunities linked to locally repressed demands; and
- iii) USA: development of private partnerships and increase in geographic performance, based on the recognition of the company's projects in the country.

The main works currently being carried out through subsidiaries and affiliates in Brazil are: Submarine Project, BH Health Units, BRT Transportes, ETA Xerém, Marapicu Reservoir, Campo Grande Road Connection, B386 BRT Transbrasil, Sul Babitonga Gas Terminal, Guaratuba Bridge, Mem Block 40 and Ute Azulão, in addition to service contracts in industrial plants.

Abroad, the main projects in activity are: Laúca Hydroelectric Plant, Barra do Dande Ocean Terminal, Cabinda Refinery Project, Lobito Refinery Project, Cabinda International Airport in Angola and East Corridor Highway in Ghana.

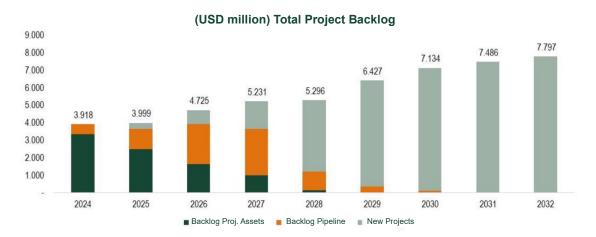

The estimation of engineering and construction activities was carried out according to the management's perspectives for existing projects and new projects in each country of operation, as follows:

BACKLOG

According to the information sent by the management of the OEC GROUP, the backlog is divided as follows:

- Active projects, that is, already signed and in progress
- 2. Prospecting projects ("pipeline"), which are specific projects to be conquered, regarding future investment plans in infrastructure already disclosed by local governments. Such projects are estimated based on research, knowledge of the markets of the regions and relationship of each regional director with public and private entities.
- 3. New projects, which are long-term projects estimated from assumptions that include the projection of investment in infrastructure in each region, the percentage of participation that OEC expects to obtain on this amount of investment in regional infrastructure and the evolution of long-term operating margins (calculated by country).

The average annual growth of net revenue according to Strategic Planning for the 2024-2030 horizon, segregated between conquered and to be conquered projects, will be 27%, impacted mainly by the expected growth between 2024 and 2028, as follows:

Revenue from new projects.

In general, the OEC Group's revenue projections were estimated based on investments in infrastructure in the countries, which in turn correlates with economic progress (Gross Domestic Product). As an example, the realized revenue from OEC, in the period from 2019 to 2023, represented, on average, 0.8% (Brazil) and 5.4% (Angola) of the amount invested in infrastructure. In the same period, the average percentage of infrastructure participation over the Brazilian GDP was 1.7% (Brazil) and 7.5% (Angola).

Source: IPEA - Institute of Applied Economic Research/OEC Group

Considering the long-term growth of GDP, the company believes that the current scenario of the country demands an average investment in infrastructure of 3.4% for the next six years. The OEC GROUP expects to achieve revenue that represents 2.8% of these investments as of 2029.

Percentage of revenue from long-term Projects on Infrastructure Investments

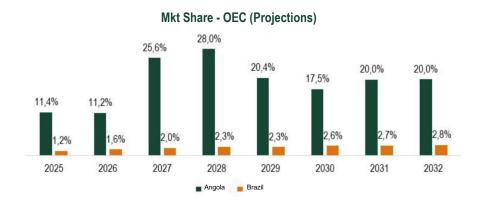

Angola and Brazil are the company's main revenue generating regions. In Angola, the company's market share started in 2014 with 25.9%, showing a decline from 2016, reaching 7.7% in 2019. In 2021, there was a sharper drop, with market share reaching 2.4% (effects of the Covid-19 Pandemic), but from that point on, the company began a gradual recovery, rising to 3.4% in 2022 and reaching 6.5% in 2023.

In Brazil, the company's market share was 6.6% in 2014. In the following years, the share fell year after year mainly due to the impacts of Covid-19 and Operação Lava Jato, registering 0.9% in 2021, 0.8% in 2022 and, finally, 0.6% in 2023.

Source: OEC Judicial Reorganization Plan

OEC's market share projections for 2025 to 2034 show significant growth in Angola, with market share rising from 11.4% in 2025 to 28.0% in 2028, followed by a stabilization around 20% by 2032. In Brazil, growth is more gradual, starting at 1.2% in 2025 and reaching 2.8% in 2032.

The metric described above was the basis for the construction of long-term project revenue projections in all countries considered in the judicial reorganization plan

DEDUCTIONS/TAXES ON GROSS REVENUES

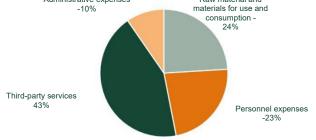

Businesses on Brazilian soil are the only ones in which revenue is subject to indirect taxation, and there is no such incidence on the projections of the other countries in which the OEC GROUP carries out its activities. Taxes on Brazilian revenues were calculated at an average historical realized rate for projects in progress or already contracted and for long-term projects, the tax rates of Pis, COFINS and ISS were considered.

OPERATING COSTS

Like the revenue stream of the OEC GROUP, the expenditure map shows a concentration of 49% of the total cost, between 2024 and 2032, in Brazil. These disbursements are linked to operating revenue, estimating to maintain the level of historical percentage of costs proportional to historical revenues. The company aims to reduce the representativeness of costs over revenues, observing the pre-pandemic period of Covid-19 and resulting in a gain in gross margin, establishing itself close to 83% of costs.

The average operating costs of the OEC GROUP are distributed among the expenses of raw material and materials for use and consumption (24%), personnel (23%), third parties (Subcontractors, rental and maintenance of equipment, cleaning and surveillance, transport, consulting and auditing, information technology and technology - 43%) and administrative (10%).

The projected expenses also include expenses with the Headquarters, forecasting expenses with sales, general and administrative expenses, personnel, taxes, etc.

EBITDA

Taking into account the projections of revenues, costs and expenses already presented, the chart below shows historical and projected EBITDA, comparing the company's past performance and expectations of growth potential.

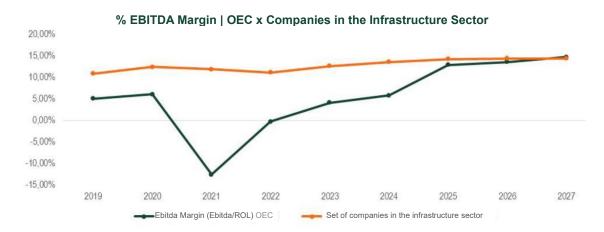

(USD million) EBITDA

Source: OEC Judicial Reorganization Plan

OEC was one of the companies most affected by Operação Lava Jato and, as a consequence, underwent a profound financial and governance restructuring.

There is an expectation of a gradual recovery in the following years, with the margin increasing to 13% in 2025 and stabilizing at 11% for the long term. It is worth mentioning that OEC still estimates a low EBITDA margin when compared to other players in the same segment.

It is important to highlight that, for some accounts, the direct cash flows provided by the company were used to build an EBITDA comparable to that of similar companies in the OEC GROUP's operating sector. This EBITDA includes adjustments related to long-term incentives, restructuring expenses and some accounts that adopt the cash basis.

INCOME TAX AND SOCIAL CONTRIBUTION

For the calculation of direct taxes on profit, an effective tax rate of 30% was considered for the activities, however in Brazil, after deductions from the Parent's expenses, the effective rate falls to approximately 25%.

WORKING CAPITAL

Brazil: Assumption of 80 days of turnover on the projected balances of accounts receivable, 60 days for suppliers, 30 days for taxes and 10 days for inventory. For the advance accounts for suppliers and advance to customers, 3.0% and 6.0% of revenue were used, respectively.

Angola and Ghana: 90 days for accounts receivable, 69 days for suppliers, 30 days for taxes and 10 days for inventory. For the advance accounts for suppliers and advance to customers, 4.0% and 8.0% of revenue were used, respectively.

U.S.A.: 60 days for accounts receivable, 60 days for suppliers, 30 days for taxes. There is no provision for advances from suppliers or customers. There are no relevant inventories in the US operation.

CAPEX

According to the company's management, for the projection, it was considered as a premise that the company will lease equipment, already reflected in the margin of the works. Therefore, there was no need for investments in CAPEX.

INVESTING ACTIVITIES

It was considered the sale of a 50% stake of the OEC GROUP in a land located in Paranaguá - PR, scheduled for 2030, totaling USD 34 million. The amount was based on a valuation report issued by a specialized consultancy, originally in reais and converted to dollars based on the expectation of the dollar exchange rate in 2030.

FINES

The payment of fines is related to the global leniency agreements signed with several countries and with the MPF, CGU, AGU and CADE. There are local and global penalty payments added to the OEC GROUP's cash flow calculation, which originate in the operations of each region in which the OEC GROUP operates.

RESTRUCTURING EXPENSES

Judicial restructuring expenses include legal costs and attorneys' fees, which involve hiring specialized lawyers to manage the process. In addition, there are administrative and judicial fees associated with court proceedings, such as filing fees and court costs. The costs of financial consulting, necessary for the preparation and execution of recovery plans, are also relevant.

DIP

It is estimated that the Anchor Investor will grant a loan of USD 120 million (gross amount), and that this amount can be increased up to USD 150 million (gross amount) if the Other Capital Market Unsecured Creditors decide to participate in the financing. This amount will be used to pay part of the flow of payments projected from the financial restructuring plan and to provide the OEC GROUP with the necessary capital to support its business.

The format to enable the granting of credit by a financial investor was dip Financing (debtor-in-possession), a cash contribution that occurs in a protected environment under judicial supervision. The financing will be destined, mainly, to:

- (i) equate the existing indebtedness;
- (ii) strengthen OEC's cash flow;

TAX DEBT

The Company joined federal tax installment programs to settle debts related to municipal and federal taxes. In the context of these installments, the premise adopted for the PRJ was that the Company will waive the ongoing processes and carry out tax transactions, aiming to install the amounts at a discount and using tax losses.

8. KEY PREMISES FOR THE FINANCIAL REORGANIZATION PLAN OF THE OEC GROUP

As anticipated in the introduction of this Study, the Company's Judicial Reorganization Plan is conditioned to the confirmation of some key assumptions. These assumptions include, but are not limited to:

- Effectiveness of the trend of mapped projects;
- Conquest of new projects;
- Implementation of operational efficiency measures;
- Liquidation of assets;
- Materialization of Claims;
- Obtaining new financing;
- The restructuring of existing debt; and
- Adherence of creditors to the terms proposed in the plan.

In short, the effectiveness of the Judicial Reorganization Plan is intrinsically linked to the materialization of these premises, which may or may not materialize. These factors are essential to ensure the viability and success of the Company's recovery process. If these assumptions do not materialize as described, the viability of the plan may be affected.

8.1. EFFECTIVENESS OF THE TREND OF MAPPED PROJECTS

The realization of this revenue depends on the company making sales of projects that are mapped in its pipeline, highlighting that they are projects not yet contracted.

8.2. ACHIEVEMENT OF NEW PROJECTS

The realization of this revenue depends on the company making sales that represent certain estimated percentages of investment in infrastructure. Considering Brazil, for example, investment in infrastructure is expected to be equivalent to an annual average of 3.4% of GDP over the next 6 years. Historically, there is observable data that demonstrated this performance, as presented in chapters "6. SECTORIAL CHARACTERIZATION" and "7. OPERATIONAL PREMISES OF the OEC GROUP "OF this report.

8.3. IMPLEMENTATION OF OPERATIONAL EFFICIENCY MEASURES

The company expects a reduction in direct costs in the management of the project backlog, with a margin gain of approximately 1.5 pp, mainly between 2025 and 2028. It is important to note that before 2020, the Group's gross margin has already been at higher levels than projected.

8.4. SETTLEMENT OF ASSETS

It was found that there will only be an increase in cash, arising from the sale of an asset, with realization scheduled for the year 2030, referring to the ownership of a land in Paranaguá.

8.5. MATERIALIZATION OF CLAIMS

Part of the company's cash is linked to revenues from claims with governments, which consist of financial claims arising from contractual adjustments, economic rebalancing, or compensation for delays and changes in government contracts. The values adopted are the most realistic estimates informed by OEC, however without concrete guarantees of their realization; it was verified that there will be only an increase in cash, from the Claim referring to Itaipu, with realization scheduled for the year 2030.

8.6. OBTAINING NEW FINANCING

The raising of USD 120 million via a senior secured loan (dip - Debtor in Possession)¹³, which will be used to finance the payments of the Judicial Reorganization Plan as well as to provide the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION with the necessary capital to support their businesses.

8.7. ADHERENCE OF CREDITORS TO THE TERMS PROPOSED IN THE PLAN

Finally, the continuity of the Judicial Reorganization Plan depends on the acceptance of the conditions offered by the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION to the creditors. The company's ability to restructure its debts and resume financial stability is directly linked to the level of adherence and approval of creditors to the proposals presented, which include terms, discounts and other essential conditions for the continuity of operations.

≯apsis

¹³ DIP (Debtor in Possession) is a financing mechanism used in financial restructuring processes.
This is a loan granted to companies that are in financial difficulty but remain in control of their operations during the recovery process.

PROPOSAL FOR PAYMENT TO CREDITORS

ODB E&C, together with some of its subsidiaries (COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION), filed for judicial recovery on June 27, 2024, aiming to restructure its operational obligations in Brazil and other debts that may impact the requesting entities. The processing of the request was granted by the Court of the 2nd Court of Bankruptcy and Judicial Reorganization of the Judicial District of São Paulo/SP on the same date. The judicial reorganization will apply exclusively to the contractor's operations in Brazil, leaving out the international subsidiaries.

The request for judicial recovery of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION aims to overcome the moment of crisis and resume the ability to pay the debts contracted with public and private creditors.

The table below presents the debts listed in the request for judicial recovery of the OEC GROUP divided by classes 14.

Lender Balance
Class I LaborClass II Security	Class III	Class IV	Total

It should be noted that, in addition to the credits listed above, there are illiquid liabilities, which are not included in the list of creditors and may materialize, impacting the amount presented in the table above.

The Financial Restructuring Plan details the proposal to restructure bankruptcy credits. The following exposition comprises the summary of the proposal and the topics considered in the preparation of the debt payment flow used in the model presented by the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION and their advisors, analyzed in this Study.

The preparation of the debt payment flow provided for in the Judicial Reorganization Plan took into account the amounts of the credits contained in the list of creditors presented by the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION, as well as the cash generation capacity of the OEC GROUP.

We present below the details of the proposal by type of creditor.

11. CONCLUSION

Apsis carried out the Economic Feasibility Study of the Judicial Reorganization Plan of the OEC GROUP, evidencing to the creditors the assumptions considered by the management and financial advisors of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION. This study did not analyze the feasibility under the corporate, tax and legal aspects.

The list of creditors considered is based on information provided by the OEC GROUP and its legal advisors up to the date of preparation of this Study. Therefore, it may be subject to changes.

After analyzing the restructuring of liabilities and assets and the company's liquidity conditions in the medium and long term, considering its sources of resources, expenses and structure of assets and liabilities, we believe that, if the operating assumptions projected by management are reached, the operating performance and the consequent cash generation of the company will be sufficient to pay the liabilities, as described in the Judicial Reorganization Plan.

Our analysis assumes that all assumptions contained in this Study and all credit restructuring assumptions presented in the Judicial Reorganization Plan, whether or not subject to it, will be verified and met. Failure to verify or comply with any of the assumptions adopted may render this analysis invalid. Apsis understands that the form of payment provided for in the reorganization plan of the analyzed company must be revisited in case of absence, delay or reduction of any of the key assumptions described in Chapter 6, as well as in case of non-verification or non-achievement of any assumptions presented in this Report and in the Judicial Reorganization Plan.

Once the Feasibility Study AP-00532/24-01 is completed, composed of 58 (fifty-eight) pages typed on one side, apsis, CREA/RJ 1982200620 and CORECON/RJ RF.02052, a company specialized in evaluation, legally represented below by its director, is available for any clarifications that may be necessary.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Apsis CONSULTORIA EMPRESARIAL Ltda., hereinafter referred to as apsis, headquartered at Rua do Passeio, n° 62, 6° andar, Centro, Cidade e Estado do Rio de Janeiro, enrolled with the CNPJ under n° 27.281.922/0001-70, was appointed by the OEC GROUP to prepare the appraisal report of its assets and assets, in compliance with the provisions of Item III of Art. 53 of Law n° 11.101/05.

On June 27, 2024, the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION filed a request for judicial reorganization, with the objective of restructuring their debts, reorganizing their activities, readjusting their capital structure, preserving their operation and enabling the conquest of new projects in the engineering and construction sector.

The request for judicial reorganization is restricted exclusively to the entities called DEBTORS. The OEC GROUP maintains investments in other companies that are not involved in said procedure.

The appraisal report of assets and assets, provided for in Item III of Article 53 of the Reorganization and Bankruptcy Law, aims to demonstrate the value of the company in a forced liquidation process, in which the individual values of each asset or group of assets contained in the company's financial statements are determined, according to the main or most advantageous market of each one.

After discussions with the management of the OEC GROUP and analysis of its organizational structure, we understand that we must treat the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION in a liquidation scenario, that is, evaluating tangible and intangible assets and assets, such as cash, accounts receivable, inventory, fixed assets and others. However, the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION have investments in companies that are not under financial restructuring. For the evaluation of investees that are not under judicial reorganization, factors such as: i) degree of dependence on OEC, that is, a company that would remain in activity in a possible scenario of forced liquidation; ii) whether the companies are in financial health and have positive results; iii) relevance of these companies. Based on these analyzes, the best evaluation criteria were defined for each investee company, the vast majority of which were evaluated by their shareholders' equity, adjusted by loans and intercompanies.

Additionally, as the asset report aims to evaluate the assets in a hypothetical forced liquidation scenario, a discount of 32.69% on the market value of the assets evaluated was considered, in order to estimate the discount that would be given on assets for a forced sale, in a short period. The discount percentage reported above was based on the Btec Technical Bulletin - 2016/005, published by the Brazilian Institute of Engineering Evaluations and Expertise (IBAPE), which, based on case studies and statistical analysis, estimated such discount applied to the market value of highly attractive real estate assets traded in auctions. The application of this discount in this Report was extrapolated to all assets evaluated, except assets of a purely financial nature.

Considering that this assessment aims to serve as an additional source of information to creditors in their decision-making for companies that are within the perimeter of the judicial reorganization, the listed debts and other liabilities of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION were not considered, since they are being restructured in this scope. However, the companies and consortia of the OEC GROUP that are not under judicial reorganization had their debts considered, as we understand that, in the event of liquidation of these assets, their indebtedness would have priority to the generation of net cash for the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION.

It should be noted that this work sought to evaluate the assets and assets of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION in a possible scenario of liquidation of said assets. It is not part of the scope of our work to detail and quantify: (i) any contingencies, (ii) results of legal proceedings against the OEC GROUP and (iii) liabilities or fines, among others, that may arise in the event of the termination of the operations of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION, such as civil and labor proceedings.

It is important to note that the OEC GROUP is a party to several legal disputes and/or arbitration in the active pole ("claims"), which may result in cash generation for the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION. The management of the OEC GROUP, together with its legal department, forwarded the claims that will be considered as assets of the company. In this context, it is worth mentioning that apsis was not responsible for, nor was it part of the scope of this Report, evaluating, measuring or validating the values presented by the OEC GROUP for legal disputes and/or arbitrations in the active pole. Thus, the values indicated by the OEC GROUP were fully considered.

- The professional fees of apsis are not, in any way, subject to the conclusions of this study.
- To the best knowledge and credit of the consultants, the analyses, opinions and conclusions expressed in this study are based on true and correct data, diligence, research and surveys.
- This Report should not be interpreted individually, but within the general context of the judicial reorganization of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION, without prejudice, for example, to rights, any legal preferences and guarantees applicable to each credit or blocked assets.
- The information received from third parties is assumed to be correct, and its sources are contained and cited in this study.
- The study presents all the limiting conditions imposed by the methodologies adopted, if any, that may affect the analyzes, opinions and conclusions contained in this work.
- This study was prepared by apsis, and only its own consultants prepared the analyzes and corresponding conclusions. The controller and the managers of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION have not directed, limited, hindered or practiced any acts that have or may have compromised the access, use or knowledge of information, assets, documents or work methodologies relevant to the quality of the conclusions contained in this work.
- It was not part of Apsis' scope to evaluate, inventory or verify fixed assets and inventories recorded in the balance sheet. Thus, the values and information presented regarding these assets were considered as recorded, without carrying out additional analyzes or validations by our team. The evaluation and inventory of these items would have a high level of difficulty, due to the quantity of items and the location scattered in several locations inside and outside Brazil. We emphasize that the market value and the settlement value may differ from the book value, which would change its conclusion on these items.
- Land evaluation was not part of the scope of work of apsis. Thus, this Report was based on information provided by third-party reports. It should be noted that we do not carry out any independent validation, verification or evaluation of the data and conclusions presented in these documents. Thus, we assume no responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or timeliness of the information contained therein.

3. LIMITATIONS ON LIABILITY

Therefore, apsis assumed as true and consistent the data and information obtained for this study and has no responsibility with respect to its veracity.
- The scope of this work did not include auditing the financial statements or reviewing the work performed by its auditors. Therefore, APSIS is not expressing an opinion on the financial statements of the OEC GROUP.
- We are not responsible for occasional losses to the Applicant and its subsidiaries, its partners, directors, creditors or other parties as a result of the use of data and information provided by the company and contained in this study.
- Our work was developed solely for the use of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION and their partners, aiming at the objective already described. Therefore, this study should not be published, circulated, reproduced, disclosed or used for any purpose other than that already mentioned without prior written approval from apsis.
- The analyzes and conclusions contained in this study are based on several assumptions, made on the present date, of future operational projections, such as: prices, volumes, market shares, revenues, taxes, investments, operating margins, etc. Thus, the company's future operating results may differ from any forecast or estimate contained in this study, especially if there is subsequent knowledge of information not available at the time of issuing the report.
- This study does not reflect events and respective impacts on the statements that occurred after the base date.
- APSIS is not responsible for direct or indirect losses or loss of profits eventually arising from the misuse of this study.
- We emphasize that the understanding of the conclusion of this study will occur through its full reading and its annexes, therefore, it is not necessary to draw conclusions from its partial reading, which may be incorrect or mistaken.
- This work does not aim to audit the data received or to investigate the ownership situation of the properties. Therefore, apsis assumed the data and information received to be true and has no responsibility for their veracity, nor is it expressing an opinion on them.
- It was not part of the scope of apsis to conduct inventory of items of property, plant and equipment or inventory counting, as well as legal or accounting analysis regarding assets/liabilities or any other form of independent investigation or due diligence on the information received from the COMPANY UNDER REORGANIZATION.
- For the analyzes and evaluations of the present study, the reference balance sheets were used management balance sheets of the company and its investees as of March 31, 2024, according to the defined base date.

become available after the date of issue as an additional and complementary source of information to support their decisions and analyzes.

- It is not part of the scope of our work to detail and quantify: (i) any contingencies, (ii) results of legal proceedings against the OEC GROUP and (iii) liabilities or fines, among others, that may arise in the event of the termination of the operations of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION, such as civil and labor proceedings.
- For the purpose of estimating sale/realization values of goods and assets in a liquidation scenario, a discount was applied to the market value of the goods. It should be noted that this discount may vary depending on several factors, such as the deadline for liquidation of assets and others.

4. DESCRIPTION OF COMPANIES AND MAIN ASSETS AND ASSETS

ODEBRECHT ENGENHARIA E CONSTRUÇÃO - COMPANY UNDER REORGANIZATION

Odebrecht Engenharia e Construção S.A. is one of the main subsidiaries of the Odebrecht Group, a Brazilian multinational conglomerate founded in 1944 by Norberto Odebrecht. The company is recognized for its global performance in engineering and construction projects, having worked in several sectors such as infrastructure, oil and gas, energy, mining, sanitation and transportation.

Historically, Odebrecht Engenharia e Construção S.A. has been involved in large infrastructure projects in Brazil and abroad, including the construction of stadiums, highways, railways, ports, airports, hydroelectric plants and other large works. Its business model is based on construction and engineering contracts, assuming responsibility for the design, planning, execution and delivery of projects.

The company adopted a decentralized management model, with autonomous business units, responsible for its operations and results. This approach allowed ODB E&C to expand its presence in several international markets, especially in Latin America, the United States, Africa and the Middle East.

However, in recent years, following the Covid-19 pandemic, the company has faced significant challenges, especially related to macroeconomic issues and substantial reduction in investments and credit in the engineering and infrastructure sector. High indebtedness and difficulties in accessing credit and other essential assets for operations have become obstacles to the advancement and resumption of growth of the OEC GROUP.

5. EVALUATION APPROACHES

Three types of approaches can be used to determine the value of an asset, whether tangible or intangible. They are:

- Market approach: The fair value of the asset is estimated by comparing it with similar or comparable assets that have been sold or listed for sale in the primary or secondary market. In the case of intangible assets, selling or market prices are rarely available, due to the fact that they are usually transferred only as part of a business, and not in an isolated transaction, which results in the fact that this approach is rarely used in the valuation of intangibles.
- Cost Approach: Measures the investment required to reproduce a similar asset that present an identical capacity to generate benefits. This approach is based on the principle of substitution, in which a prudent investor would not pay more for an asset than the cost to replace it with a comparable ready-made one.
- Income approach: Defines the value of the asset as the current value of the future benefits that result from its ownership right. The fair value of the future cash flows that the asset will generate over its useful life is projected based on current expectations and assumptions about future conditions. It is noteworthy, however, that synergistic or strategic effects other than those realized by market participants should not be included in the projected cash flows.

For the purposes of this Report, we use the cost (equity value) approach for the valuation of assets that are not under judicial reorganization, since these assets either present recent losses in the calculation of their results for the year, or are part of the primary structure of economic activity of the OEC GROUP, that is, in an eventual bankruptcy scenario this company would cease to operate, and also for unrepresentative assets. This approach was also used for assets that are activated in the balance sheets of the respective parent companies as "Assets held for Sale", following the guidance of CPC 31, Non-Current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations, whose fair value is measured (item 15 of CPC 31) at market value less costs and expenses with the sale or at the equity value (equity) of the company, whichever is lower. Therefore, the cost (equity value) approach was adopted for all companies.

The land appraisal report prepared by third parties used the market approach for land appraisal.

The income approach was not used, since the main companies of the group, the operational and profitable, would no longer operate in a hypothetical liquidation scenario. Therefore, this is not the best methodology for the scenario contemplated in this Report.

More details about the assumptions adopted in the valuation of the assets of the OEC GROUP can be found in the next chapters and annexes of this Report.

6. EVALUATION METHODOLOGIES

6.1 INCOME APPROACH: DISCOUNTED CASH FLOW

This methodology defines the company's profitability as its operating value, equivalent to the discounted value of the future net cash flow. This flow is composed of net income after taxes, plus non-cash items (amortizations and depreciations) and less investments in operating assets (working capital, plants, installed capacity, etc.).

The projected period of net cash flow is determined taking into account the time that the company will take to present a stable operating activity, that is, without operational variations deemed relevant. The flow is then brought to present value using a discount rate that will reflect the risk associated with the market, the company and the capital structure.

NET CASH FLOW

For the calculation of net cash flow, we used as a measure of income the shareholders' equity, according to the following table, based on the most commonly accepted economic theories and practices in the market, especially of the works:

- DAMODARAN, Aswath. Assessment: Principles and Practice. In: Corporate Finance: theory and practice. 2. ed. Porto Alegre: Bookman, 2004. p. 611-642.
- PRATT, Shannon P. Income Approach: Discounted Economic Income Methods. In: Valuing a Business: The Analysis and Appraisal of Closely Held Companies. 3. ed. Burr Ridge: Irwin Professional Publishing, 1996. p. 149-202.

FREE CASH FLOW TO THE SHAREHOLDER

- () Non-cash items (depreciation and amortization)
- (=) Net Profit Before Taxes (EBIT)
- () Financial income and expenses
- () Income tax and social contribution (IR/CSSL)
- (=) Net Profit After Tax
- (+) Non-cash items (depreciation and amortization)

- (=) Simple balance
- () Capital investments (CAPEX)

RESIDUAL VALUE

After the end of the projection period, perpetuity is considered, which includes all flows to be generated after the last year of the projection and their respective growths. Generally, the residual value of the company (perpetuity) is estimated by using the constant growth model. This model assumes that, after the end of the projective period, free cash flow to the shareholder (FCFE) will have a constant perpetual growth.

DISCOUNT RATE - CAPM

The discount rate to be used to calculate the present value of the income determined in the projected cash flow represents the minimum profitability required by investors. Considering that the company does not have loans or that, in the valuation model used (shareholder cash flow), the impact of indebtedness is already reflected analytically in the projected cash flow, the estimated return required by equity for the discount rate is considered.

This rate is calculated using the Capital Asset Pricing Model (CAPM) methodology, in which the cost of capital is defined by the risk-free rate plus a risk premium weighted by the specific risk factor, described below.

Typically, risk-free rates are based on the US Treasury bond rates. For the cost of equity, bonds with a term of twenty years are used, as it is a period that more closely reflects the concept of continuity of a company.

Cost of equity	Re = Rf + beta*(Rm - Rf) + Rp + Rs
Rf	Risk-free rate: is based on the annual U.S. Treasury interest rate for twenty-year bonds, considering long-term U.S. inflation.
Rm	Market risk: measures the valuation of a fully diversified portfolio of stocks over a twenty-year period.
Rp	Country risk: represents the risk of investing in an asset in the country in question, compared to a similar investment in a country considered safe.
Rs	Size risk premium: Measures how much the size of the company makes it riskier.
beta	Adjusts the market risk for the risk of a specific sector.
leveraged beta	Adjusts the industry beta for the company's risk.

VALUE OF THE COMPANY

Net cash flow to the shareholder is generated by the company's global operation, already net of debt service, and financial income is available to shareholders. Therefore, it analytically contemplates the impact of the company's indebtedness.

Another necessary adjustment is the inclusion of non-operating assets, that is, those that are not consolidated in the company's operating activities, being added to the operating value found, as well as the company's cash position.

6.2 COST APPROACH: ACCOUNTING SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY

This methodology is derived from accounting practices adopted in Brazil, in which the financial statements are prepared based on the principle of historical cost or acquisition cost, or adjusted to fair value when so required.

Under these accounting practices, the carrying amount of a company's equity equals the carrying amount of the assets less the carrying amount of the liabilities.

The basic principles of economics allow you to create the following valuation technique: the value set for assets minus the value set for liabilities is equal to the value set for a company's equity. From an appraisal perspective, the relevant definitions of value are those appropriate to the purpose of the appraisal.

Therefore, this valuation methodology, in the context of this Report, was applied to assets/subsidiaries of the OEC GROUP that are not under judicial reorganization for the economic group.

6.3 NEW REPRODUCTION COST ("DPRK")

It is "the current cost of a new identical good". In other words, it is the estimated cost to build, at current prices on the valuation date, an exact copy or replica of the asset under valuation, using the same materials, construction standards, design, layout and quality of labor and incorporating all deficiencies of the subject asset, superadjustments and obsolescence.

. ECONOMIC VALUE OF THE MAIN ASSETS AND ASSETS

As previously described, the appraisal report of the assets must demonstrate the value of the company in an eventual scenario of forced liquidation. After discussions with the management of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION and analysis of their organizational structure, we understand that we must treat the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION in a liquidation scenario, that is, evaluating tangible and intangible assets and assets, such as cash, accounts receivable, inventory, fixed assets and others. The COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION have investments in companies that are not under judicial reorganization, which are important assets and assets for them. However, it was verified that certain investee companies have a high degree of dependence on the operation of the COMPANIES, making it difficult to estimate a cash flow for their businesses in the hypothetical scenario of liquidation of the COMPANIES. Thus, the valuation of these investments was based on their accounting shareholders' equity. For investments that have no correlation with the operation of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION, that is, they are not construction companies, it was verified if the company has financial health and if it is representative for the definition of the valuation methodology.

Therefore, this Valuation Report of the assets and assets was based on the individual balance sheet of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION on the base date, considering the valuation of the main assets and assets in the context of liquidation of the OEC GROUP.

Below, we describe the main assets and assets identified, the valuation methodology applied and the values found. In addition, a discount of 32.69% on the market value of the assets evaluated was considered, in order to estimate the discount that would be given on assets for a forced sale, in a short period. The discount percentage reported above was based on the Btec Technical Bulletin - 2016/005, published by IBAPE, which, based on case studies and statistical analysis, estimated such discount applied to the market value of highly attractive real estate assets traded in auctions. The application of this discount was extrapolated to all assets valued in this Report, except assets of a purely financial nature.

Below, we indicate the treatment for each accounting balance. The same treatment was given to all companies, differentiating only those that are in judicial reorganization and those that are not. Considering that this assessment aims to serve as an additional source of information to creditors in their decision-making for companies that are within the perimeter of the judicial reorganization, the listed debts and other liabilities of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION were not considered, since they are being restructured in this scope. However, the companies of the OEC GROUP that are not under judicial reorganization had their unlisted debts considered, as we understand that, in the event of liquidation of these assets, their indebtedness would have priority to the generation of net cash for the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION.

The account plan of the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION consists of the accounting balances described below.

- Cash and cash equivalents: Refers to available cash, such as banknotes and coins, as well as amounts in checking accounts and highly liquid short-term investments that can be easily converted into cash. Thus, due to the immediate liquidity, no liquidity discount was considered for this account.
- Trade receivables: Amounts owed to the company by customers for the sale of goods or services on credit. The balances of accounts receivable from customers were maintained, since the management of the OEC GROUP understands that, even in a hypothetical liquidation scenario, an effort would be made to honor the current contracts, in order to avoid the emergence of liabilities.

Accounts receivable from customers also have accounts receivable from group companies. Balances owed by companies within the perimeter were excluded. Accounts receivable with companies outside the perimeter of the financial restructuring was maintained, as the counterpart in the liabilities of these companies was also considered. In addition, in order to reflect the risk of the forced liquidation scenario, the forced liquidation discount, mentioned above, was applied to the residual balance.

- Advance to subcontractors: Prepayments made to subcontractors for services or works that have not yet been completed. In an eventual scenario of forced settlement, considering the nature of the bookkeeping account, we understand that it would not be possible to recover these balances, while the recoverability is inherent to the continuity of the companies' operations. Therefore, no economic value was assigned to this account.
- Advance to suppliers: Payments made in advance to suppliers before delivery of goods or services. In an eventual scenario of forced settlement, considering the nature of the bookkeeping account, we understand that it would not be possible to recover these balances, while the recoverability is inherent to the continuity of the companies' operations. Therefore, no economic value was assigned to this account.
- Advances: Payments made in advance to employees or third parties, which have not yet been made on goods or services. In an eventual scenario of forced settlement, considering the nature of the bookkeeping account, we understand that it would not be possible to recover these balances, while the recoverability is inherent to the continuity of the companies' operations. Therefore, no economic value was assigned to this account.
- Recoverable taxes: These are taxes to be recovered inherent to the company's operation, paid in advance and recoverable in the continuation of the operation and the generation of new taxes to be collected. In addition, because it is a non-fiduciary right and because it depends on the continuity of the company's operation to use these balances, the amounts of this account were written off, assigning a null value to it.
- Assets and real estate to be marketed: Properties acquired or built by the company for the purpose of sale. For this account, the balance activated in the trial balance on the base date was considered, considering that this is the fair value of the asset, in line with accounting pronouncement CPC 28, Investment Property. In addition, in order to reflect the risk of the forced liquidation scenario, the forced liquidation discount mentioned above was applied.
- Prepaid expenses: Payments made in advance for services or benefits to be received in future periods. In an eventual scenario of forced settlement, considering the nature of the bookkeeping account, we understand that it would not be possible to recover these balances, while the recoverability is inherent to the continuity of the companies' operations. Therefore, no value was assigned to this account.
- Stocks: Goods, raw materials or finished goods held for sale or use in production. The write-offs of the balances of advances and imports in progress were carried out, while in a possible scenario of forced liquidation these balances would not be used. For the other stock balances, the book value was considered under the premise that they could be recovered in an eventual disposal. In addition, in order to reflect the risk of the forced liquidation scenario, the forced liquidation discount, mentioned above, was applied to the residual balance. We emphasize that it was not part of the scope of this work to verify the physical existence of the items activated in the inventory, as well as the confirmation of their existence and evaluation of these assets. Inventories are in different locations in Brazil and around the world, so it is difficult to estimate the costs of moving and selling these assets. Thus, the realizable value may differ significantly from the book value.

- Other accounts receivable: These are receivables from related parties, whether consortia, affiliates or subsidiaries. Thus, the balances due by the companies that are within the perimeter of the financial restructuring were written off. In addition, in order to reflect the risk of the forced liquidation scenario, the aforementioned forced liquidation discount was applied to the residual balance.
- Loans (assets)/Consortium checking account/ Single cash/Intracompany/ Book-entry checking account: Loans granted between companies in the same group. The balances due by the companies that are within the scope of the judicial reorganization were written off, since the passive end of the loan was not considered in the analysis. Balances (assets) with companies outside the perimeter were maintained at their book value. In addition, in order to reflect the risk of the forced liquidation scenario, the forced liquidation discount, mentioned above, was applied.
- Values to be classified: Transitional amounts that have not yet been classified or allocated to specific accounts. Considering that in a possible scenario of forced settlement, considering the nature of the bookkeeping account, it would not be possible to recover these balances, no value was attributed to this asset.
- Deferred taxes: Taxes that were deferred for payment in future years, generally related to temporary differences in the recognition of income or expenses. Because it is a non-fiduciary right and because it depends on the continuity of the company's operation to use these balances, no value was attributed to this asset.
- Collateral: Deposits or guarantees provided to third parties. Considering that in a possible scenario of forced settlement, considering the nature of the bookkeeping account, it would not be possible to recover these balances, no value was attributed to this asset.
- Dividends and interest on equity receivable: Amounts receivable from companies in which the entity holds equity interest. Thus, the balances due by the companies that are within the perimeter of the financial restructuring were written off. The balances of dividends receivable against companies outside the perimeter were maintained at book value. In addition, in order to reflect the risk of the forced liquidation scenario, the forced liquidation discount, mentioned above, was applied.
- Advance for Future Capital Increase (AFAC): Amounts that will be used to increase the company's capital stock, not yet formalized. In an eventual scenario of forced liquidation, we understand that these assets will not be paid in. Thus, no value was attributed to these assets.
- Escrow deposits: Amounts deposited in court to guarantee the fulfillment of obligations in dispute. In a possible scenario of forced settlement, considering the nature of the bookkeeping account, it would not be possible to recover these balances.
- Specific operations: These are receivables with a remote expectation of recoverability, depending on the time due. Thus, no value was attributed to balances recorded under this item.

- Adjustment to present value: Adjustment of the values of assets or liabilities to present value. As it is a reducing account of assets (receivables), the amounts related to assets not considered were written off. Thus, only the temporal adjustments applicable to the balances of companies outside the perimeter were considered.
- PECLD: Allowance for doubtful debts, used to adjust the value of accounts receivable by the estimated non-recoverable amount. As it is a reducing account of assets (receivables), the amounts related to assets not considered were written off. Thus, only the temporal adjustments applicable to company balances outside the perimeter were considered to remain in force.
- Financial instruments: This account, in the context of OEC GROUP, refers to the financial application. Thus, the book balance was considered as the economic value of this item.
- Investments and real estate to be sold: Assets held for future sale, including real estate that the company intends to dispose of. For this account, the balance activated in the trial balance on the base date was considered, considering that this is the fair value of the asset, in line with accounting pronouncement CPC 31, Non-Current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations. Thus, in order to reflect the risk of the forced liquidation scenario, the forced liquidation discount, mentioned above, was applied.
- Fixed Assets: The fixed assets activated in the balance sheets of the OEC GROUP are: Land, buildings and facilities, Machinery and equipment, Furniture and fixtures, Vehicles and vessels, Tools/appliances and accessories, Computer equipment, Improvement in third party assets, Fixed assets in progress and Right of use. For evaluation purposes, the assumption of non-recoverability for the balances of Fixed Assets in Progress, Right of Use and Improvements in Third Party Assets was assumed, writing off their respective balances and assigning null economic value to them.

The valuation, inventory and verification of fixed assets were not part of the scope of work of apsis. The book value of these assets was considered for the purposes of this Report. Thus, in order to reflect the risk of the forced settlement scenario, the forced settlement discount was applied to the accounting balance, mentioned above.

Inventories are in different locations in Brazil and around the world, so it is difficult to estimate the costs of moving and selling these assets. Thus, the realizable value may vary significantly from the book value.

In addition, for the CNO Land (Paranaguá and Guarulhos) account, the appraisal report carried out by third parties was used, respectively, made available by the management of the OEC GROUP. We reinforce that apsis did not validate the assumptions used in this evaluation, nor the audit of the documents sent, since it was not part of the scope to carry out these certifying activities.

- Intangible: The intangible assets of the OEC GROUP are composed of: Software, Goodwill in the business combination, Licenses and franchises and Intangibles in progress. We understand that these assets would have little value in a hypothetical forced liquidation scenario. Thus, no value was attributed to these assets.
- Investment: This item covers equity interests in subsidiaries and affiliates. For the investees that are included in the perimeter of the financial restructuring, only the part corresponding to the assets was considered, applying the treatments mentioned above. The balance of the liabilities of the companies under financial restructuring will be treated within the scope of the financial restructuring plan. For investments, which are not included in the request for judicial recovery, the aforementioned treatments were applied, with the exclusion of the balances due by the companies in recovery. In addition, in order to reflect the risk of the forced liquidation scenario, the forced liquidation discount, mentioned above, was applied.

Below, we demonstrate the economic value and the liquidation value of the main assets and assets of each COMPANY UNDER REORGANIZATION. In this evaluation, we follow the assumptions described above and are based on the individual financial statements as of March 31, 2024.

2. As the value of the investment/consortium is negative, we understand that the economic value of the investment is zero. Therefore, the settlement adjustment column demonstrates the reversal of this value so that the economic value is zero.

It is worth mentioning that NSP Investimentos S.A. - under financial restructuring ("NSP Investimentos") holds a relevant interest in Braskem S.A. However, NSP Investimentos is in the process of judicial recovery separated from the OEC GROUP. In this sense, for its evaluation, the accounting shareholders' equity added to the capital gain of its investment in Braskem S.A. was considered, considering the equity interest of NSP Investimentos in Braskem S.A. of 38,38%.

For the evaluation of Braskem S.A., the market perspective was considered, taking into account the weighted average price of the share in three months, from January 2, 2024 to March 28, 2024, and multiplying by the number of shares available.

It should be mentioned that a sensitivity was carried out on the value of the share, applying a control premium, in order to reflect the additional value that a possible buyer would have for the entire participation of the OEC GROUP.

However, the shareholders' equity of NSP Investimento, on the base date of March 31, 2024, is negative, and, after accounting for the capital gain in the balance sheet, the company's shareholders' equity remained negative, as can be seen in Annex 5 of this Report. Therefore, the economic value attributed to NSP Investimento was null.

8. ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS

As informed by the management of the OEC GROUP, the companies have lawsuits in arbitration in progress.

For information purposes, the claims pointed out by the management refer to the amount claimed by the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION, disregarding any discount or taking into account their due date.

It is worth mentioning that processes of this nature have a high degree of uncertainty and may not materialize, or materialize with a lower value than expected. Apsis has not made any analysis of these processes and is not issuing any opinion on the expected values.

In addition, we emphasize that the value of each claim should not necessarily be added to the value of the assets and liabilities described at the conclusion of this Report, given that these amounts may be substitutes for assets and liabilities already presented in the balance sheets of the OEC GROUP.

CONCLUSION

According to the studies presented by apsis and taking into account the limitations previously listed, with a base date of March 31, 2024, the experts concluded that the economic and financial value and the value of the assets of the OEC GROUP, for the purpose of subsidizing the COMPANIES UNDER REORGANIZATION with regard to Item III of Article 53 of Law No. 11.101/05, are given according to the following table.

Investment property

Property (land, construction or part of construction, or both) maintained by the owner or lessee under lease, both to receive payment of rent and for capital appreciation, or both, other than for: use in the production or supply of goods or services, as well as for administrative purposes.

Rd (Cost of Debt)

Measurement of the amount paid for capital from third parties, in the form of loans, financing, market funding, among others.

Re (Cost of Equity)

Return required by the shareholder for the invested capital.

Business risk

Degree of uncertainty of realization of expected future returns of the business, resulting from factors other than financial leverage.

Insurance

Transfer of risk guaranteed by contract, by which one of the parties undertakes, upon collection of a premium, to indemnify the other for the occurrence of a claim covered by the policy.

Loss

Event causing financial loss.

Discount rate

Any divisor used for the conversion of a stream of future economic benefits into present value.

Internal rate of return

Discount rate where the present value of future cash flow is equivalent to the cost of the investment.

Tested

Measurement of the front of a property.

Current value

Replacement value per new depreciated due to the physical state of the asset.

Book value

Amount at which an asset or liability is recognized in the balance sheet.

Perpetuity amount

Amount at the end of the projective period to be added to the cash flow.

Electrical damage value

Estimate of the cost of repair or replacement of parts, when an electrical damage occurs in the asset. The values are tabulated as percentages of the Replacement Value and were calculated through studies of the equipment manuals and the corrective maintenance experience of Apsis technicians.

Investment Value

Value for a particular investor, based on particular interests in the asset under analysis. In the case of business valuation, this value can be analyzed by different situations, such as synergy with other companies of an investor, risk perceptions, future performances and tax planning.

Forced liquidation value

Value of a good offered for sale on the market outside the normal process, that is, the one that would be determined if the good were offered for sale separately, taking into account the costs involved and the discount necessary for a sale in a reduced period.

Immediate liquidation value

Same as the Forced Liquidation Value, but with a more aggressive liquidation percentage.

Depreciable amount

Cost of the asset, or other amount replacing the cost (in the financial statements), less its residual value.

Replacement value per new

Value based on what the good would cost (usually in relation to current market prices) to be replaced or replaced by a new, equal or similar one.

Insurance Value

Value at which an insurance company assumes the risks and does not apply to the land and foundations, except in special cases.

Scrap value

Market value of reusable materials of a good, in the condition of deactivation, without these being used for productive purposes.

Value at Risk

Value representative of the portion of the asset that is to be insured and that may correspond to the maximum insurable value.

Value in use

Value of a good in operating condition in the current state, as a useful integral part of an industry, including, when relevant, the expenses of design, packaging, taxes, freight and assembly.

(Fair) market value

Value for which an asset can be exchanged for ownership between a potential seller and a potential buyer, when both parties have reasonable knowledge of the material facts and neither is under pressure to do so.

Fair value less expense to sell

Amount that can be obtained from the sale of an asset or cashgenerating unit less the expenses of the sale, in a transaction between knowledgeable parties, willing to do so and exempt from interest.

Maximum insurance value

Maximum value of the asset for which it is recommended to be insured. This criterion establishes that the asset with depreciation greater than 50% must have the Maximum Insurance Value equal to twice the Actual Cash Value; and that with depreciation less than 50% must have the Maximum Insurance Value equal to the Replacement Value.

Present value

Estimated discounted present value of net cash flows in the ordinary course of business.

Recoverable value

Higher fair value of an asset (or cash-generating unit) less selling expenses compared to its value in use.

Residual value

Value of the new or used good projected for a date, limited to that in which it becomes scrap, considering it to be in operation during the period.

Asset residual value

Estimated amount that the entity would obtain at present with the disposal of the asset, after deducting its estimated expenses, if the asset was already of the expected age and condition at the end of its useful life.

Key variables

Variables that, traditionally, are important for the formation of the value of the property.

Independent variables

Variables that give logical content to the formation of the value of the property, object of the evaluation.

Qualitative variables

Variables that cannot be measured or counted, only ordered or hierarchical, according to attributes inherent to the good (for example, construction standard, state of conservation and soil quality).

Quantitative variables

Variables that can be measured or counted (e.g., private area, number of bedrooms, and parking spaces).

Dependent variable

Variable that is intended to be explained by the independents.

Dichotomous variable

Variable that takes only two values.

Remaining life

Remaining useful life of an asset.

Economic service life

Period in which an asset is expected to be available for use, or the number of production or similar units expected to be obtained from the asset by the entity.

Inspection

Local verification of facts, through judicious observations on a good and on the elements and conditions that constitute or influence it.

Vocation of the property

Economically more appropriate use of a given property due to its own characteristics and surroundings, respecting legal limitations.

WACC (Weighted Average Cost of Capital)

Model in which the cost of capital is determined by the weighted average of the market value of the components of the capital structure (own and third parties).

Wara (Weighted Average Return on Assets)

Weighted average rate of return expected for the assets and liabilities that make up the company under analysis, including goodwill.

Annex 7.1.4

Key Terms and Conditions of the dip Headings Deeds

- 1. Issuer. Newco or any company that may succeed it ("Issuer").
- 2. Guarantors. ODB E&C, OECI, Tenenge, and BPC, for providing personal guarantee at the Issue Value ("Guarantors").
- 3. Guarantors. Guarantors, in addition to CBPO, OAL, CNO and Unicon ("Guarantors").
- 4. Face value. Up to US$150,000,000.00 (one hundred and fifty million Dollars), to be disbursed in national currency in a single installment, with a discount of 5% (five percent) of its issue price, to be made available on the date of implementation or waiver, as the case may be, of the last of the Conditions Precedent of the dip Financing (as defined below) provided for in the dip Securities Deeds ("Closing Date"), net of all costs, expenses and commissions ("Net Volume").
- 4.1. Firm Commitment of the Anchor Lender. The Anchor Lender, by itself or its Affiliates, subject to compliance with and verification, as applicable, of the conditions precedent and other applicable provisions of the dip Debentures Deed and other applicable documents, guarantees the subscription and payment of the dip Financing in a minimum amount in reais corresponding to up to USD 120,000,000.00 (one hundred and twenty million Dollars) ("Minimum Amount").
- 5. Interests and Correction. The dip Securities will be updated by the variation factor of the closing quotation of the selling rate of United States Dollars and will have remuneration interest corresponding to the pre-fixed rate of 18% (eighteen percent) per year, according to formulas to be agreed in the dip Securities Deeds.
- 6. Payment of Interest. The interest provided for in item 5 above will be due every six months from the date of issue of the dip Bonds, without grace period. Only in the first two years from the Closing Date and if, at the time of payment of the respective interest installment, the minimum cash is not available (to be established in the DIP Securities Indentures), the Issuer may choose to make such payments partially or fully by means of a Payment in Kind instrument, provided that the Issuer will be required to make the payment (i) in full of the interest installment if, after making such payment, the Issuer's cash balance is equal to or greater than the minimum cash; and (ii) in part of the interest installment if any balance exceeding the minimum cash is insufficient to make the full payment of the respective interest installment, provided that, in the latter case, the payment amount will be equivalent to the full amount that exceeds the minimum cash at the time of payment. For the purposes of this item 6, interest payments shall be calculated as follows:

Interest Payment = (Interest Rate x Total Volume) / 2

provided that if the Issuer opts for Payment in Kind on any semiannual payment date, the Total Volume will be updated by the updated debit balance, considering the incorporation of interest incurred and not paid in the semester.

7. Maturity and Amortizations of Principal. The dip Securities will mature on the 4th (fourth) Anniversary of the Closing Date, and will be amortized according to the following schedule¹⁵:

Portion	Due Date	Amortized amount
1ª	Closing Date 3rd Anniversary	50%
2ª	Closing Date 4th Anniversary	Remaining balance

- 8. Structuring Compensation. In return for the efforts made by the Anchor Financier to audit, structure and negotiate the dip Financing, the Issuer undertakes, on an irrevocable and irreversible basis, to pay, to the Anchor Financier, the amount corresponding to USD 12,000,000.00 (twelve million Dollars) ("Extraordinary Remuneration"), net of any costs and Taxes, in free and unencumbered resources, on the Closing Date, which must be paid directly to the Anchor Financier.
- Compensation of Commitment. In return for the commitment to allocate the capital of the Anchor Lender to guarantee the subscription and payment of the dip Financing in the Minimum Amount, the Companies under Reorganization undertake, individually and jointly, irrevocably and irreversibly, to pay, to the Anchor Lender, every 3 (three) months, from the date on which the commitment of the Anchor Lender is entered into in relation to the Minimum Amount and until the Closing Date, the amount corresponding to 3.0% (three percent) per year on the Minimum Amount ¹⁵ Note: The validity period of the issue shall be counted from the Issue Date to be established in the Issue Deed, which will take into account the term established herein.

- calculated pro rata temporis based on the year of 360 (three hundred and sixty) days -, to be paid every 3 (three) months and in advance ("Commitment Remuneration").
- Subscription Warrants. In return for the efforts made by the Anchor Financier to audit, structure and negotiate the dip Financing, and the commitment made by it to grant the dip Financing, NewCo will issue, on the Closing Date, a subscription bonus, in the form of article 77 of Law 6.404/76, which will be subscribed by the Anchor Financier (or any of its affiliates), on the Closing Date and will be exercisable, for the total and aggregate exercise price of BRL 1.00 (one real), at any time until the 30th (thirtieth) anniversary from the date of disbursement of the dip Financing, and will allow it to hold preferred shares issued by NewCo equivalent to 10% (ten percent) of its share capital, on a fully diluted equity basis ("Subscription Bonus" and "BS Shares"). Upon the exercise of the Subscription Warrant, NewCo will issue the BS Shares within ten (10) days from the date of exercise notification sent by the Anchor Financier (or any of its affiliates) to the Issuer.
- 11. Optional Pre Payment. The Issuer and/or the Guarantors may prepay the dip Financing in full, which shall be in the amount equivalent to 1.8x (one whole and eight tenths times) of the Issue Value. It will not be allowed the partial prepayment of the dip Financing. Any prepayment of the dip Financing shall not result in the cancellation, redemption, restriction or limitation of any nature of the rights and remedies of the Anchor Financier inherent to the Subscription Warrant.
- 12. Security Interests. In guarantee of the Issue Value, subject, as the case may be, to the equivalences in other jurisdictions and any consents from third parties, the OEC Group shall constitute the guarantees indicated below, among others that may be negotiated between the Anchor Financier and the Under-recovery Parties ("Guarantees"):
- fiduciary assignment (or equivalent guarantee in another jurisdiction) (i) of the credit rights a. arising from the civil works contracts in the Republic of Angola that have been signed and perfected on a date prior to the Closing Date or on a date established by mutual agreement between the Companies under Reorganization and the Anchor Financier ("EPC Contracts Angola"); and (ii) future of any new contracts to be signed for the development of civil works in Angola and other countries ("Other EPC Contracts" and, together with EPC Angola Contracts, "Relevant EPC Contracts"), and the drawees must be notified or expressly agree (a) on the constitution of this guarantee, and (b) to pay the amounts of such contracts in a centralizing account to be indicated by the Anchor Lender in a jurisdiction to be defined by mutual agreement between the Anchor Lender and the Under-recovery Parties;

- b. fiduciary assignment (or equivalent guarantee in another jurisdiction) on the credit rights arising from any liquidity events involving the assets mentioned below: (i) equity interest in Odebrecht Angola Projetos e Serviços Lda. ("OAL"), (ii) equity interest in the company Kulanda Belas Malls Gestão e Participações Lda., holder of "Belas Shopping"; and (iii) equity interest in the company BioCom Companhia de Bioenergia de Angola Lda.;
- c. fiduciary sale of real estate in Brazil to be defined by mutual agreement between the Anchor Financier and the Companies under Reorganization;
- d. fiduciary assignment (or equivalent guarantee in another jurisdiction) of credit rights to be defined by mutual agreement between the Anchor Financier and the Companies under Reorganization;
- e. fiduciary sale of the entire equity interest held by CBPO in the company Unicon União de Construtoras Ltda., in a format to be agreed between the Anchor Financier and the Companies under Reorganization and fiduciary assignment of all dividends and/or any proceeds that may be distributed by Unicon to CBPO arising from credits arising from certain legal claims to be defined by mutual agreement between the Anchor Financier and the Companies under Reorganization; and
- f. fiduciary sale of all shares issued by NewCo, being certain that this guarantee (i) will not restrict NewCo from carrying out a primary issuance of new free and unpaid shares, observing the obligation to maintain NewCo's corporate control by ODB E&C until the full discharge of the Financing; and (ii) will not bind the funds received in such issuance to amortize the dip Financing.

12.1. Constitution and Improvement. The Guarantees shall be fully formalized and perfected in favor of dip Investors, for all legal purposes, at the time of disbursement of dip Financiers.

- 12.2. Adjustments to Warranties. The Anchor Financier and the Debtors undertake in good faith to negotiate partial releases of up to 20% (twenty percent) of the Guarantees selected by mutual agreement between the parties solely to enable the contracting of new working capital financing, guarantee insurance and/or bank guarantee by the OEC Group for its operational activity, observing the additional indebtedness limits indicated in item 13 below, as well as certain conditions to be agreed between the parties.
- 13. Indebtedness Limits. In the years in which the Issuer exercises the right to make payments through a Payment in Kind instrument, the indebtedness of NewCo and its relevant subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, may not be equal to or greater than USD 100,000,000.00 (one hundred million dollars). In the years in which the Issuer does not exercise or is not applicable the right to make payments through a Payment in Kind instrument, the indebtedness of NewCo and its relevant subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, may not be equal to or greater than USD 100,000,000.00 (one hundred million Dollars) or 2x (twice) the Net Debt/EBITDA ratio, whichever is greater. The limits provided for above apply exclusively to the contracting of financial debt, being certain that the indebtedness derived from the dip Financing and the payment obligations arising from the Plan will not be subject to the limitation provided for in this item.
- 14. Taxes. All taxes that may be levied on the structuring and release of the funds object of the dip Financing, directly or indirectly, as a result of the suggested operation, will be borne by the Companies under Reorganization, NewCo or its affiliates, as applicable. All payments to be made by NewCo, within the scope of the dip Financing and/or the other operations contemplated in this instrument shall be net of any taxes and charges of any nature, so that said payments will be increased by the amounts necessary so that, after the deductions and payments required by the applicable legislation, the dip Financiers result in the effective and net receipt of the full amount of such payments, as if the deductions and payments were not due (gross-up).
- 15. Costs. Any and all costs related to the discussion, structuring and negotiation of the dip Financing will be borne directly by the Companies under Reorganization or NewCo or reimbursed by it to the Anchor Financier, including attorney's fees, hiring of consultant, registration fees in notary's offices or trading environment of the instruments that enable the dip Financing, among others.

- Covenants and Additional Obligations. The dip Bond Deeds shall provide for additional 16. covenants and obligations with qualifiers and thresholds within those typically used by the market for similar transactions, including, without limitation: (i) early maturity conditions, including the practice and occurrence of acts that negatively affect or impair the dip Financing; (ii) restrictions on the change of control and new indebtedness, as well as the distribution of dividends by any of the Companies under Reorganization; (iii) limitation on the distribution of dividends; (iv) cross-default and cross-acceleration, (v) restriction to dispose of, encumber or promise to dispose of or encumber certain assets or assets owned by it; (vi) restriction to carry out operations with related parties, except, in any case, operations in the normal course of business under commutative conditions and/or necessary to comply with obligations under leniency agreements, repair agreements, terms of termination of conduct and obligations or related instruments entered into, to date, with public authorities or entities controlled by the State; (vii) limitation to carry out corporate reorganizations, spin-off, merger, transformation or liquidation; (viii) restriction to make certain investments; (ix) limitations on indebtedness and leverage of NewCo; (x) obligation to provide periodic information on financial, economic and operations of NewCo, including limitation on the maximum volume of cash flow to be made available for obligations other than the Amortization of Principal or Payment of Interest, pursuant to this instrument; (xi) establishment of stabilizing accounts to receive the credit rights subject to the Guarantee of this instrument; and (xii) other terms and conditions that may be negotiated between the Anchor Lender and the Debtors.
- 17. Conditions Precedent. The release of the resources of the Minimum Amount by the Anchor Lender will be subject, under the terms of art. 125 of the Civil Code, to the implementation or waiver, as applicable, of suspensive conditions to be included in the dip Bond Deed that may be negotiated between the Anchor Lender and the Companies under Reorganization and that are typical for such type of operation, including the approval of the dip Financing and the final drafts of the DIP Bond Deed by the credit and investment committees of the Anchor Lender (together, "Conditions Precedent of DIP Financing").
